Southwestern HVAC system issues linked to age

BY BOB DEMAREE

Southwestern High School and Middle School has been dealing with HVAC problems since the school was hit with a ransomware attack in January but ongoing issues now seem to be related to the advanced age of the system.

While issues with the heating system were originally entirely related to the ransomware attack, since that time other issues have been identified that are making the building difficult to heat consistently. Superintendent Jeffrey Bates said at Monday's Southwestern Jefferson County School Corporation board meeting the HVAC issues now are unrelated to the attack and more due to the age and condition of the system.

"We're having heating issues, and it's a different issue every time. It's not the same one happening over and over again," said Bates, noting he's fielded questions like "Why don't you get it fixed?"

He said the problem has been more complicated in that there have been several repairs made and several more needed. "When you fix one thing, then it's something else. We're doing the best that we can with it."

Bates said Southwestern's HVAC system is decades old — he estimated it at 30 to 40 years old — so the repairs have involved multiple system failures.

"It's really been different issues with the heating and cooling. The first one was caused by the ransomware, and that was taken care of within a week. The ones happening now have nothing to do with ransomware. They have to do with old equipment," Bates said, noting there have been instances where it's been too cold in one part of the building and 90 degrees in another part while other times the temperature in both were just right.

He said two chillers have been taken out of service until they can be repaired, to allow the rest of the HVAC system to function.

He said there were heating issues Monday, prompting a

Ivy Tech students can now pursue IU Southeast business bachelor's

BY BOB DEMAREE

A partnership with Indiana University Southeast will soon create a pathway for pursuing a bachelor's degree in business through Ivy Tech Community College in Madison.

"Madison will now have a hybrid program that has the rigor and the faculty for an outstanding program," said Dr. Amanda Harsin, Chancellor of Ivy Tech Madison, which will provide an in-person bachelor's degree program at its building at 590 Ivy Tech Drive.

Beginning in the fall of 2025, faculty from the IU Southeast School of Business will teach two evening classes per semester at the Ivy Tech Madison campus, allowing students from Jefferson, Switzerland, Scott, Jennings and Ripley counties in Indiana as well as Trimble, Carroll and Henry counties in Kentucky to earn an IU Southeast business degree.

Dr. Debbie Ford, Chancellor of IU Southeast, emphasized the importance of partnerships. "We can have it all but we can't have it all as independent, or working in our silos," she said. "Today, more than ever, we have to cross those boundaries and work as partners. So, when I think of the value of this partnership, I think about how it extends access to even more students."

"So, we're going to come here and offer that quality IU Southeast degree. Partnerships like this help us to meet the regional needs of our communities, and so we are southern Indiana," Ford added. "We are higher educational partners preparing this next generation of learners for what is next."

Ford said the program will not only impact the students but the business that are in great need of the skills they will learn.

"The number one request that I receive from our business and community partners is 'we need talent' and so programs like this between Ivy Tech Madison and IU Southeast will build that talent," Ford said.

Under the agreement, students who have earned an Associate Degree in Business or an Associate of Applied Science in Business from Ivy Tech Madison can transfer their credits to IU Southeast to pursue a Bachelor of Science in Business or a Bachelor of Applied Science in Business.

"The School of Business is excited to partner with Ivy Tech Madison on this endeavor," said Dr. David Eplion, Dean of the IU Southeast School of Business. "Jefferson County and the neighboring counties in Indiana and Kentucky are an important part of our service region. This program will enable us to deepen our ties with the local community and allow residents to earn a four-year Indiana University degree without leaving home."

Jefferson County resident Kristy Hay, of Lexington, is a current business student at Ivy Tech Madison with plans to pursue a bachelor degree in business through the program. "I'm getting ready to finish my associates degree, and having this chance at a bachelor's degree, it's like a sign I can't ignore the opportunity, so I just want to keep going."

Hay said she wants to eventually have her own consulting business to help other small business owners overcome barriers. She owned a business with her husband that shut down during the COVID-19 pandemic. After that, she sought education to learn about business and better run her own business.

"I thought my educational journey had a limit and an associate degree would be as far as my age would allow me to go," said Hay. "With this program, I can continue my education and improve my future career opportunities. I now have new goals for my future that wouldn't even be a possibility if it weren't for this partnership

CHARLIE'S BEAT

Roberts keeps Memorial Weekend car show alive

In case you haven't realized this yet about our community, pretty much every cool and new thing that happens around here can be traced back to the energy and vision of a single individual. This very column you are reading was the brainchild of then-Madison Courier Editor Maggie Hillery, back in 2018. Jeff Garret was the man behind Ribberfest. And Tony Novello is the father of the MadHop Festival in November.

Now we have a brand new car show on our calendar, called Rumble on the River, taking place on May 24, Memorial Day Saturday. This weekend has hosted a car show for many years, thanks River Rat Rodz Car Club. But they decided it was time to hang up the fuzzy dice and drive off into the sunset, leaving the spot open for a new organization to take the wheel.

The individual grabbing that wheel is Whitney Roberts, executive director of the Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) agency here in town, and an avid hot rod buff in her own right. "I've always been a car person," explains Whitney. "My fiancé and my uncle Pat Brewer are helping me build a '32 Ford Roadster, so I'll be showing myself in the car shows pretty soon."

"The opportunity to take over the Memorial Day weekend and put on a car show is really a dream come true. Plus, it creates a second annual fundraiser event for CASA, which is near and dear to my heart." CASA is an advocacy group for abused and neglected children here in Jefferson County.

Former Madison Street Superintendent Tony Sorrells, who retired in October 2024, was back on the job Tuesday morning helping clean up after the recent Ohio River flooding on Vaughn Drive. Sorrells was sweeping mud and debris off the basketball court at Crystal Beach Aquatic Park using a high pressure hose connected to a city fire hydrant. The river crest- ed locally at 451.61 feet at 10:15 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 20, putting a large section of Vaughn Drive and the basketball court under water, but was back down to 429.53 at 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Southwestern delays final pool payment until issues resolved

BY BOB DEMAREE

The long journey toward completion of the pool rebuild at Southwestern Aquatic Center is nearing an end with a few concerns lingering.

At Monday’s meeting of the Southwestern Jefferson County Schools board of trustees, it was decided to hold off final payments for the $1 million pool until all concerns are addressed.

Two invoices totaling $89,000 — one for $60,000 and another for $29,500 — are being held back until pool contractor, American Leak Detection, responds to questions about numbers on daily water usage, concerns about rust, guidelines for pool care and whether a spool will be provided for the lane ropes.

Board president Rick Stockdale expressed concern that daily water usage seems higher than it should be, and wants to be certain the usage is normal, fearing that if not then there could be a leak. Also, Superintendent Jeffrey Bates noted there is a “rust issue. We were not told the stainless steel would rust.”

Swim Coach Shelly Anderson-Hamilton also questioned whether a spool for lane ropes was included “as part of the deal” with American Leak Protection. “We were pretty sure that we sat in a meeting with them” and the spool was stated as an item that would be provided. “I remember we were talking about where we were going to put it on the deck.”

Anderson-Hamilton also asked whether any instruction for maintenance and care of the pool will be provided. For example, she wondered about guidelines for caring for the stainless steel pipes.

Anderson-Hamilton, who was pool manager last summer at the new Crystal Beach Aquatic Center in Madison, said they had to polish the pipes daily at Crystal Beach. “I haven’t seen anything about having that done, and we’re already seeing water spots on the pipes. It will lead to problems in future. I just want to know how to take care of the pool.”

Southwestern Chief Financial Officer Laura Boldery said total cost for the pool was $1,084,683.46. Bethany Legacy Foundation provided a $650,000 grant with the remaining $434,683.46 coming from Southwestern’s operations and rainy day funds.

American Leak Detection’s bid was $895,000, which did not include electrical costs that were estimated at $50,000 for a total of $945,000, although some additional costs were anticipated.

On Feb. 19, Boldery said the school corporation received a letter from American Leak Detection requesting final payment, and that the pool “has been operational and open for several weeks now.”

The actual first date that pool use was permitted was Feb. 3, more than six months later than the initially announced completion.

When the swim season ended last year, there was a last dip event on March 9 for final use of the nearly 50-year-old pool that was being replaced due to badly needed repairs. The plan was that the pool would be taken out and replaced to be completed prior to the start of the swim season and classes in August 2024.

But that didn’t happen. In November, members of the Southwestern and Hanover College swim teams were at that month’s school board meeting, frustrated that the pool still wasn’t completed and their seasons were underway. At the December board meeting, it was reported that it would be completed during the Christmas holiday break but that also wasn’t achieved.

When students were able to get back in pool in early February, the swim season was nearing its end and nearly 11 months after that last dip event.

Anderson-Hamilton said Southwestern swimmers were hampered by not having their pool available for practice during the season, noting when it was finally available, “we got in three days before girls sectional, and had two of the girls drop 15 seconds in their events because I got to work them for a day (in the pool).”

She said it made her wonder “what could have been” for Southwestern swimmers if the pool had been completed on time.

“There hasn’t been a sense of urgency about this,” said Anderson-Hamilton, expressing disappointment in the way the project was managed.

The pool is now beginning to get some use, but plans for a celebration event are being delayed until there is more certainty that all issues have been resolved, hopefully in April, she said.

American Revolution Experience exhibit coming to Madison next week

BY THE COURIER STAFF

The American Revolution Experience traveling exhibit will be in Madison at the Madison-Jefferson County Public Library Auditorium, 420 West Main Street, beginning Monday, March 3 through Wednesday, March 12.

The exhibit is a collaborative project of the American Battlefield Trust and the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution that is being welcomed locally through the John Paul Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR).

The exhibit will be open to the public during regular library hours. School groups are welcome by arrangement through emailing John-PaulDAR1902@gmail.com.

The American Revolution Experience will travel to scores of libraries, historical societies and museums through December 2025, introducing visitors to a cast of historical characters with diverse experiences throughout the conflict and the places they visited on their journey. The exhibits that will travel the country contain 12 panels highlighting thematic connections between profiled individual stories and three interactive kiosks that connect to the full digital biographies, provide documentary context on the Revolutionary War and offer information on how to visit the places tied to these individuals today.

“The American Revolution would not have happened without the decisions, sacrifices, and valor of ordinary people,” said DAR President General Pamela Rouse Wright. “DAR is honored to have collaborated with the American Battlefield Trust on this initiative to highlight some of our Patriots and their roles in the founding of this great country.

We are thrilled for people in communities across the country to learn more about these individuals.”

The American Revolution Experience exhibit includes diverse viewpoints and experiences, touching on the journeys — both literal and figurative — of Patriots and Loyalists, men and women, Black and Native populations and even international allies. Rather than focusing only on generals and famous statesmen, it introduces audiences to drummer boys, military mapmakers and other ordinary people who were impacted by global events.

John Paul Chapter DAR will host an opening ceremony at noon on Monday, March 3, including a flag presentation by members of the Clifty Creek Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, and welcoming remarks by the Indiana State Regent, DAR, and others.

BEAT

“There are actually three of us on the event committee, myself, Chad Pennington and Joe Whitaker, but I’m doing most of the early leg work to bring it together. There has been a ton of support and interest among the car-owner community, many of whom have been bringing their cars to Madison in late May for many years. We’re able to slot right into that popular weekend and build on that existing base of loyal attendees.

“One thing people will notice right away at Rumble on the River is a bigger emphasis on music. I’ve been a huge music fan all my life, and I wanted to incorporate that into the new format. I believe music can impact people emotionally, making them excited or happy or nostalgic. I want to share those good feelings as part of this event. We have live musicians lined up to play pretty much all day. This year we have Keagan Hatton, Ethan Priest, and Craig Cole playing on stage, and I think people are really going to enjoy how talented and entertaining these guys are.

“Other events and amenities will include a cornhole tournament, food trucks, a 50/50 drawing and 30 award categories for the cars. We’re also changing the event footprint a little bit, shifting it more towards the bridge and cutting it off at Broadway. We don’t want to interfere with the operation of the newly renovated pool.

“I will point out with the revised footprint that we may not have quite as many spaces for cars as in years past, and we may need to cut off entries. That’s why I’m encouraging all interested car owners to go online and register early and ensure they have a spot. Go to casajc.net/rumble by May 10 to register. There might be spots still open on the morning of the event, but I wouldn’t count on it. I’d register early, for sure.

“I want to thank the River Rat Rodz folks for building up this weekend and the car show for so many years, and giving CASA the opportunity to take over the spot and do our thing. Car shows are a big part of the Madison tourist calendar, and we’re happy to help keep the tradition alive.”

HOT TIP OF THE WEEK

Whew! After so much music last weekend, Indiana’s Music City is taking a bit of a breather this week. Only 17 live music events on the calendar instead of 23 like last week. Ha! Even in our “slow” weeks we still bring the jams, all over town. I was talking to the owners of MadPaddle and they said the first open-mic “Pickers Circle” last Thursday was a nice success so check it out on future Thursday as more and more folks discover this inviting and fun place to display their talents.

Oh, as you are out and about enjoying all the free live music in town, please take notice of the new lighted TIP jars near all the stages. Please show your appreciation for the musicians and the venue owners for bringing you such great, free entertainment. Toss a few bucks in the ol’ tip jar and help keep music alive in Madison!

Charlie Rohlfing is a retired advertising man and partner in The Red Bicycle Hall music venue. Look for his distinctive fedora bobbing above the crowd, anywhere live local music is happening.

virtual day at the middle school and high school. Those repairs were made by Tuesday allowing in-person classes Tuesday through Thursday.

Due to issues with the HVAC system, and other weather-related cancellations, Southwestern has had to schedule several virtual teaching days because the schools have already used all of their scheduled make-up days. “By going virtual, we will not have to tag a bunch a days on at the end of the year,” Bates said.

Bates said fortunately the HVAC is functioning well at the elementary school, allowing those students to still have in-person classes while the middle school and high school students have held virtual days. “I think it’s been beneficial for the elementary to be able to have their kids come here, and face-to-face instruction,” Bates said.

Southwestern teacher Shelly Anderson-Hamilton said people are confused and angered by the ongoing problems. “People are getting livid and irate,” she said, noting the continued problems with the HVAC system combined with confusion over the cause.

“The ransomware was 100% correct, and what initially caused it to go off” in January, said Bates. “Now it’s been other things that are causing the heat issues.”

In other business, the board:

- Hired Hannah Quarcini as a first grade teacher during the maternity leave of Kenzie Elston. Accepted the retirement of Roger Bickers as school corporation maintenance director effective May 30 and Cara Shaffer as fourth grade/special education teacher at the end of the school year.

- Chief Financial Officer Laura Boldery updated that Southwestern’s ADM (average daily membership) has decreased by one student since the fall count when it was 1,183.49 and now 1,182.49. She said the 0.49 fraction is due to a virtual student and that losing only one student “is really great for our budget.”

- After receiving 14 bids for the school corporation’s lawn care services, the board tabled action until the contracts can be reviewed.

- Accepted the bid of $22,583.82 from CDW-G for a Dell PowerEdge R760 server to replace the current server that is six years old. Other bids came from Insight at $23,986.76 and Dell at $25,444.60.

- Approved $24,200 to Bickers Flooring for removing carpet and installing VCT (Vinyl Composite Tile) in the OVO area in the elementary school basement that includes two classrooms, a hallway and office. The work will done in July, the only month when that space isn’t being utilized. There was also a bid offered by Madison Floors and More for $25,784.50.

- Boldery said Southwestern Elementary Principal Robert Adams is working towards submitting an application for a grant to the Bethany Legacy Foundation for new playground equipment for both elementary students and the preschool due to the poor condition of current equipment. One quote estimated the cost at $800,000.

Beverly Sue Kuntz

Beverly Sue Kuntz, 68, daughter of the late LeRoy Allen Humphrey Sr. and LeRita Frances (Frazier) Humphrey, was born on Dec. 15, 1956, in Madison, IN. She graduated from Madison Consolidated High School in 1974. She went on to pursue a two-year phlebotomy degree in Louisville, KY, to become a laboratory scientist. While furthering her education, she was raising two children, Jacob and Christan, and working full-time at a little grocery store on Kuntz Road in Madison. Once she completed her education, she became a Laboratory Scientist in Fort Riley, KS.

After a few years, Susie and her children returned to the loving home of her parents on Chicken Run Road in Madison. On May 15, 1997, Vern Pyles, the former Laboratory Director for King’s Daughters’ Hospital, offered Susie an opportunity to work in the lab at the hospital’s hilltop clinic. It was there that she met Jill Scranton, whom she mentored and became the best of friends with. They continued to talk daily, even after Susie’s retirement. She also mentored Michelle Hill, always encouraging her to focus on her career and keep advancing until she was named the new laboratory director at King’s Daughters’ Hospital. Ms. Hill celebrated Susie’s retirement on June 4, 2021. Susie valued recognizing others’ talents and encouraging them to use their gifts, always guiding them toward reaching their full potential.

During their adolescence, her children enjoyed thoughtfully planned birthday parties with beautiful decor, cakes, and as many friends as they wished to invite. At the corner of Chicken Run Road, Susie was known for hosting Madison’s most incredible teen Halloween parties with Rocky and J.R. Harrell at the DJ stand. Even though she worked quite a bit, she would take the kids to hotels across the state for weekends, along with her special tote bag filled with knick-knacks. On Sundays, Susie would help dress her kids for Christ when they accompanied their grandparents to Pastor DeBoard’s service at North Madison Baptist Church. As her parents began to age she took meticulous care of them, heading to their house after her work day and staying all night.

After 24 years in the laboratory, Susie retired in 2021, which allowed her to spend more time with her family. She was very supportive of her daughter, Christan, keeping her connection to Christ and focused on her passions. She played a part in getting her granddaughter Kaitlyn to Case Western Reserve University. From the age of three, Susie helped nurture Kaitlyn’s love of medicine by often bringing her into the lab at the clinic. She also enjoyed attending many of her granddaughter Emily’s gymnastics meets through the years. Susie was incredibly proud of Emily for becoming a gymnast at the University of Bridgeport. In her spare time, she enjoyed reading her Bible and decorating and tending to her beautiful home filled with 200-year-old antique furniture.

After suffering from a back injury several years ago, her mobility became very limited. It took persuading to get her to have surgery, but Dr. Reinsel brought much peace to her body. This allowed her to fully enjoy her remaining years with her family and even assist her ailing son during the past year. Ms. Kuntz passed away on Monday, Feb. 17, 2025, at Norton Hospital in Louisville, KY. Even in her final days, she was able to give life through donation of her liver, kidneys, and pancreas.

Her soul will be cherished by her loving daughter: Christan Noel Kuntz of Madison; her granddaughters: Kaitlyn Ryan Turner, Emily Noel Turner, Justice Kuntz, Lyric Kuntz, and Mollie Green; her brother, LeRoy “Allen” Humphrey Jr. of Indianapolis, IN; three step-daughters whom she held in great affection: Teresa Stewart of Madison, Kellie Kammes of Chicago, IL, and Michelle Bear of Madison; as well as their husbands whom Sue greatly appreciated their deep devotion to their wives: Tommy Stewart, Lance Kammes, and Nate Bear; and many nieces and nephews. Her loving son, Jarrod Michael Kuntz passed away on the following day, Tuesday, Feb. 18, 2025.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her son, Jacob Ryan Kuntz; her perfect sister, Carol Ann Grimes, and her sister-in-law, Beverly Diane Hamilton Humphrey.

A memorial service honoring Beverly Sue Kuntz and her beloved son, Jarrod Michael Kuntz will be conducted at 6 p.m., on Saturday, March 1, 2025, at the Morgan & Nay Funeral Centre, Hanover Chapel, 278 East Main Street, Hanover, IN. The Disadvantaged Retirement Sector: Women

Stephen Dybwad “Layin’ it on the line”

By Stephen Dybwad Retirement Planning/Wealth Management The fact is both scientific and straightforward: Women live longer than men!

For several years our family worked as volunteers for the food bank. It supplied those in need with weekly baskets of food and other necessities of life. It was very special to help, and we have numerous memories of that time.

Over the years, we realized that a change was taking place; many people (especially women) that volunteered morphed into those who needed the help and the food baskets. What happened? To place the reason was not easy, and it was, in a sense embarrassing for those who helped to become those in need. But remove half of the income, and things changed. In most cases, a spouse had died, and with that event, income was severely reduced, and a lifestyle was lowered. One woman, in particular, was a retired teacher, her husband was also a retired teacher, and life was fine with their pensions and social security. She and her husband raised children and helped the church and their community, but things changed when he died.

I remember the day she came for food; she was in tears and needed friends. Of course, everyone helped, but the humiliation of that event shook her as well as the rest of us. How could this have happened? They had been retired for about 18 years. In the beginning, their retirement was more than enough, but with inflation, tax increases, and covering for medical expenses leftover from a lowering of medical reimbursements, it all took a toll. Millions of women just like her are in need and living in the shadows. Consider what retirement should be, to live well and with comfort; how many have seen their dream of the Golden Years turn dark?

Women, in general, make less money, translating to less money to put aside for retirement resulting in a more significant portion of the poverty population. And women live longer than men, which statistically translates to less available retirement income. A recent report from the National Institute on Retirement shows shocking results regarding women in retirement. The report that women in retirement are 80% more likely than men to be impoverished.

The reasons are apparent; throughout a women's working life, their income is lower, and less money is contributed to Social Security for retirement.

The study found that women of all age groups have substantially less income at retirement than men. For women aged 65 and older, the report indicates that their average income is as much as 25% lower than men.

As men and women grow older, the men's income advantage widens to 44% by age 78. Consequently, women were 80% more likely than men to face poverty at age 65. Women aged 75 to 79 were three times more likely to fall below the poverty level than men. The critical first step for women with their financial planning is to take control and be in charge of their financial future. Making sure your financial future has fundamental guarantees is the first step. Annuities may help provide that strong base. Here are a few benefits of using an annuity as the foundation of retirement planning.

Funds in an annuity accumulate as deferred, which may help it grow more efficiently. Many annuities now contain long-term care riders, which will assist in nursing home expenses. The LTC rider may be less expensive than a long-term care insurance policy. In addition, the right type of annuity (fixed) protects from loss (and risk), and the proceeds are fully guaranteed.

Last business day for Madison Big Lots was Thursday

BY BOB DEMAREE

Madison retailer Big Lots has been a presence on the city’s hilltop for nearly 40 years, but on Thursday that all came to an end with the store’s closing after not surviving the corporate company’s Chapter 11 bankruptcy.

There had been some hope that the Madison store, a leading performer in the company, might be allowed to stay open despite the company’s overall struggles.

“We worked really hard” to make the Madison Big Lots one that would stay open, said Jessica Jones, the store’s Freight Processing Lead, “especially when they told us we had a chance. They told us initially we had about a 50-50 chance because we were under consideration. We tried to work extra hard to out-perform other stores. Even though I think we actually did, it just wasn’t” decided to keep the store open.

In the last year, she said the Madison store was the top store in the Indiana district and among the top 100 stores nationwide. However, the only Indiana store that will remain open is in Jasper.

Big Lots sells closeout and overstock merchandise from other stores, along with furniture, home decor and other items. At the end of 2023, Big Lots operated nearly 1,400 stores in 48 states. But by September 2024, the company had filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection and announced the closing of approximately 400 stores.

After the bankruptcy, there were plans for Big Lots to sell its assets and ongoing business operations to private equity firm Nexus Capital Management but that deal fell through. Big Lots then partnered with Gordon Brothers, a firm that specializes in distressed companies, that led to a deal with Variety Wholesalers Inc., a retail company headquartered in Henderson, North Carolina, to take over some of the Big Lots stores.

It is expected that approximately 200 Big Lots stores will stay open through Variety Wholesalers Inc., but employees of the Madison store learned two weeks ago that they weren’t one of them.

Big Lots opened in Madison as part of a purchase of 17 Danner’s 3D stores from Danner’s Inc. in December 1986. Through that transaction, Big Lots assumed the leases of all 17 3D stores, liquidated the inventory and closed them and then reopened as Big Lots in 1987.

The retail space was initially the 50,000 square-foot Pages Department Store that opened Nov. 15, 1969, a short-lived small chain that developed in the late 1960s and filed bankruptcy in the early 1970s. Danner’s 3D Discount Department Store opened there April 5, 1973.

Pedestrian facility work will take place between Wilson Avenue and Michigan Road and is expected to be completed in early June, weather permitting. Eastbound and westbound traffic will be reduced to one lane while work is in progress.

All work is weather-dependent and schedules are subject to change.

Trimble girls open district tourney with win over Henry

BY ABBY HOOVEN
PAXTON MEDIA GROUP

Trimble County girls basketball handed Henry County a season-ending loss 45-39 in the 31st District quarterfinals on Tuesday, Feb. 25.

The Cats battled all evening to keep the score close, but the Raiders held off Henry down the stretch to earn the victory.

"All week, we've been just preaching believe, believe, believe, and they really bought in," said Henry head coach Landon New. "We're just so proud of the effort they gave."

After Trimble County began the game with a 6-2 lead, Henry ramped up its defensive pressure to limit quality opportunities for the Raiders.

Henry's offense also picked up as the quarter progressed to cut into the lead. Ella Royalty utilized an assist from Micah MaGruder and Sidney Arnold knocked down a three to trim the margin to 9-7 with about four minutes to go in the period.

Trimble County bounced back with a layup before Morgan McElfresh buried a corner three at the 1:30 mark.

The Raiders struggled late in the quarter with turnovers but regrouped to extend the lead back to four on a 3-pointer with about a minute to go.

However, Henry continued to deliver from behind the arc and Cali Johnson swished a corner three with 10 seconds left to bring the Cats within one, 14-13, at the end of the quarter.

However, Trimble took control early in the second quarter with an 8-0 run over the first two minutes of action. The Raiders' full court press slowed Henry offense and Trimble turned at least one steal into a layup during the surge.

Another 3-pointer and a shot down low pushed the margin to 22-13 until McElfresh and MaGruder connected on a pair of threes to close to within three.

The 3-point barrage continued with a shot from long range by Alyssa Ritchie to move the advantage to 25-19 with 3:19 left in the half.

Both defenses stood firm for the following two minutes before MaGruder hit a layup to trim the lead to four. The Raiders then closed out the half with three free throws to push ahead 28-21 at the break.

Trimble started the second strong on offense with a layup and a runner in the paint to move ahead by 10.

Henry kept fighting and did force Trimble turnovers with defensive intensity. Royalty also connected on two layups to cut the lead to six with 5:52 remaining in the period.

The Raiders recovered with a steal for an open layup, but McElfresh knocked down a huge 3-pointer to help Henry stay within five.

Both teams continued aggressive defense over the final four minutes of the period and each forced a couple turnovers with that pressure.

Trimble County's Jolie Wilcoxson goes strong to the basket for two of her 11 points in a 45-39 win over Eminence in the opening round of the girls 31st District basketball tournament Tuesday at Eminence.

Henry County kept fighting and did force Trimble County turnovers with defensive intensity. Royalty also connected on two layups to cut the lead to six with 5:52 remaining in the period.

Taylor Lawrey hit a pair of free throws with 2:42 left but Trimble answered with a layup about 10 seconds later before both squads went scoreless the remainder of the quarter.

Entering the final period with a 38-31 edge, Trimble County pushed the margin to nine with two free throws 30 seconds into the quarter.

MaGruder followed with a steal and was fouled on her ensuing layup attempt. She hit one of two from the line to cut the margin to 40-32.

Defensive effort remained consistent for both teams throughout the fourth quarter and led to a four-minute gap without a basket by either team.

MaGruder ended the dry spell with a hook shot at the 2:23 mark but Trimble added a shot on the block to go back ahead by eight.

McElfresh buried a big 3-pointer with just under two minutes left pulled Henry within five and the Cats fought hard until the end, cutting the lead back to five with 38 seconds left.

However, Trimble County secured the win at the foul line to advance to the semifinals on Thursday night.

McElfresh and MaGruder ended with 12 points each for the Lady Cats, who finished the season with a 2-28 record.

"I told the team after the game I was proud that they left it all on the floor. They didn't leave anything to be accounted for. They didn't leave anything unsaid, undone on the floor," said assistant coach Chris Simpson. "I'm just proud of their effort and their resilience."

Kendra Mahoney led the Raiders with 15 points while Jolie Wilcoxson scored 11, Ainslee Stark had 7, Mariah Ramsey 6 and Anna Brierly and Alyssa Ritchie added 3 points each.

TRIMBLE BOYS FALL TO OWEN)

Trimble County's boys suffered a 67-21 loss to Owen County in the opening round of the 31st District Tournament on Wednesday.

The Raiders trailed 41-10 at halftime en route to the 46 point loss. No statistics for the game were available.

Trimble ends the season with a 6-24 record.

Eminence sweeps Carroll at district tourney

BY PAXTON MEDIA GROUP

District tourney host Eminence sent Carroll County packing with a pair of first round wins Monday, avenging two regular season losses to the Lady Panthers and completing a season sweep over the Carroll boys.

The Lady Warriors overcame five 3-pointers and a 17-point night by Carroll senior forward Elle Spencer to avenge 46-41 and 44-33 regular season losses to the Panthers and prevail 57-47. The win was the first 31st District tournament victory for Eminence since 2019.

"This win means a lot to our team, our program and our community," said Eminence head coach Joshua Keene. "The ladies have worked incredibly hard over the last few seasons to build something special, and to see their effort pay off in a district tournament win is really a blessing. We talk a lot about fight, no fear and trusting one another, and this moment is a testament to all of that. For our seniors, this is something they've been working toward for years, and for our younger players, it's proof that the work they put in now will lead to success in the future."

The Eminence boys built a 32-22 halftime lead and fended of a couple of Carroll County rallies late to score their third victory of the season over the Panthers as high scoring stars Cooper Holland, of Eminence, and Cooper Gutman, of Carroll County, put on a scoring exhibition with 30 and 29 points, respectively.

"Cooper Holland had a really good game. He really stepped up, took control," said Eminence head coach Brandon Gabbard.

Carroll's girls scored the first seven points of the night and doubled up the Warriors 16-8 by the first quarter break but Eminence rallied in the second period to push ahead 29-28 at halftime. Carroll retook the lead in the third quarter until an 11-0 Warrior run — fueled by Carroll turnovers — allowed Eminence to seize a 40-30 lead en route to a 47-35 cushion entering the final quarter.

Carroll cut the margin to nine points on Spencer's final 3-pointer of the night with about a minute left in the game but the Panthers ran out of time as Eminence iced the win at the free throw line.

In addition to Spencer's 17 points, Carroll got 12 from senior Cloie McGuire and 11 points and 5 rebounds from junior Josie Dale. Senior Kelby Maiden scored 6 points to go with 7 rebounds and Jaislyn Hamm had one point and a team-high 8 rebounds. Carroll shot 33% from the field, 22% from 3-point range and 69% at the foul line.

Eminence sophomore Brooklyn Smith led all scorers with 23 points while freshman Victoria Spiegl added 16 points and 8 rebounds.

The Warriors were out-rebounded 29-28 but out-shot Carroll 39% to 33% from the field, 29% to 22% from 3-point range while Carroll hit 69% at the foul line to the Warriors' 40% and took 16 foul shots to 5 by Eminence.

Meanwhile, Carroll's boys battled the Warriors close in the first quarter before second quarter turnovers allowed Eminence to forge a 32-22 half-time lead and never lead by less than 7 points the rest of the game. Although the outcome was never in doubt, Carroll did put up a much better fight than in their two regular season matchups won by the Warriors 69-39 in Carrollton and 68-42 in Eminence.

"It's always hard to beat somebody for the third time. We were in that position tonight...", said Gabbard. "I thought we pressured them well, and I thought that was the difference in the game. We were able to get easy baskets off of our pressure more than anything else."

Carroll out-rebounded Eminence 31-23 but the Warriors took much better care of the ball and went to the foul line four times for every attempt by the Panthers. Eminence was 13-of-16 (81%) at the foul line to Carroll's 1-of-4 (25%). Carroll was 46% from the field and 44% from 3-point range while Eminence was 44% from the field and 36% from 3-point range.

In addition to Gutman's team-high 29 points — which included five 3-pointers and 6 rebounds — Carroll got 14 points from sophomore Rylan Kinman. Sophomore Karson Vaught scored 6 points to go with 6 rebounds, freshman Hunter Dalton had 4 points and sophomore Matthew Biggin added 2. Kyle Jackson led the Panthers with 8 rebounds.

Eminence was led by Holland, a sophomore, with 30 points while junior Brady White added 15. Senior Matthew Virgin scored 7 while classmates Mick Mitchell and Jackson Fackler had 7 points each with Fackler leading the Warriors in rebounds with 7. Sophomore Greyson Tingle added 2 points.

Carroll's girls closed out the season with a 13-16 record while the boys finished at 10-17.

Eminence's girls (14-13) advanced to play top-seeded Owen County (14-14 but unbeaten in the district) on Wednesday, while the Warrior boys (16-13) played top-seeded Gallatin County (18-10) on Wednesday.

Indiana fends off Penn State 83-78

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BLOOMINGTON — Oumar Ballo had 20 points, 12 rebounds and five assists, Myles Rice scored 11 of his 13 points in the second half and Indiana beat Penn State 83-78 on Wednesday night.

Trey Galloway made a 3-pointer on back-to-back possessions and Anthony Leal capped the 8-0 run with two free throws to give Indiana a 75-69 lead with 4:51 left.

Rice had a nice two-possession sequence to push the lead to 80-73. He sank a 3-pointer from the corner off a nice pass from Galloway and Ace Baldwin Jr. slipped under the basket at the other end. Galloway grabbed the loose ball and quickly passed it ahead to Rice, who was trailing the play for a fast-break layup.

Ballo grabbed a key offensive rebound with a minute left and Rice was fouled with 56.5 left before making 1 of 2 free throws to make it 81-76.

Ahead 81-78, Rice missed two free throws with 31.7 left to give Penn State another chance. But Zach Hicks missed a potential tying 3-pointer and Indiana secured the defensive rebound. Luke Goode secured it at the line.

The Hoosiers were just 15 of 25 at the free-throw line but went 10 of 15 from 3-point range.

Galloway had 16 points and four 3-pointers, Mackenzie Mgbako also scored 13 and Goode added 10 for Indiana (17-11, 8-9 Big Ten).

Baldwin finished with 22 points, five rebounds, five assists and six steals for Penn State (15-14, 5-13). Yanic Konan Niederhauser added 16 points.

Penn State returns home to play No. 16 Maryland on Saturday before concluding the regular season at No. 11 Wisconsin on March 8.

Indiana has three games remaining, starting with a Saturday contest at Washington (TV: Live on Peacock at 6 p.m.).

Hepburn connected on just 5 of 12 from the floor, but hit all four of his free-throw attempts and added six assists for the Cardinals (22-6, 15-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), who won their sixth straight and for the 16th time in 17 games.

Brandon Rechsteiner led Virginia Tech (12-16, 7-10) with 18 points.

Louisville, which led by as many as 11 in the second half and never trailed, saw Virginia Tech cut the lead to 67-66 on a short jumper by Rechsteiner with 1:49 to play. But the Hokies did not score again, turning the ball over on two of their final three possessions.

The Cardinals used a dunk by James Scott and two free throws by Reyne Smith in the final minute to hold off the Hokies.

Scott and Terrence Edwards Jr. each finished with 13 points for the Cardinals, who forced 22 turnovers.

TAKEAWAYS
Louisville: Arguably the surprise team in the ACC, the Cardinals registered their ninth road win of the season and still have an outside shot at the top seed in the ACC Tournament. They have three winnable games — all at home — to close the regular season.

Virginia Tech: The Hokies have lost three of their past four games, and barring a late-season run, will suffer their first losing season in 10 years.

KEY MOMENT
With Louisville leading 67-66, Scott grabbed a missed shot by Hepburn and dunked the ball with 59 seconds remaining.

KEY STAT
The Hokies' 22 turnovers were their second most on the season, and Louisville took advantage, scoring 26 points off those turnovers.

Oweh beats buzzer to loft UK over Oklahoma

BY AARON GERSHON
THE CATS' PAUSE

NORMAN, Okla. — It was a magical return to Norman for Otega Oweh as he scored a career-high 28 points, grabbed six rebounds and scored a game-winning layup with six seconds left to help No. 17 Kentucky beat the Oklahoma Sooners 83-82 in its first-ever trip to Norman and the Lloyd Noble Center Wednesday.

"It's a great feeling just coming into your old space. Getting a win, being out there and hearing the boos," Oweh said postgame. "As a basketball player, getting that type of attention and coming out with the win, it's a great feeling."

"He had a phenomenal game, made some really tough shots and couldn't get a stop down the stretch," Oweh's former head coach and Sooners head man Porter Moser added.

Oweh, who was booed each time he touched the ball Wednesday, scored each of Kentucky's final 18 points over the game's final eight and a half minutes in the victor, including the game-winner in the final seconds against the team he spent his first two college seasons suiting up for.

Along with Oweh's

Kentucky guard Otega Oweh (00) celebrates after making a shot during the first half Wednesday in Norman, Okla.

heroics, the win also featured the return of Kentucky's starting point guard Lamont Butler and shooting guard Jaxson Robinson who both had missed multiple games due to injury. However, the win did not come without another injury scare as center Amari Williams went down favoring his lower leg early in the first half. He would return before the midway point of the half.

Robinson, an Ada, Oklahoma native, did not log any second half minutes after playing 12 in the first half and scoring seven points as he remained on the bench with his injured wrist wrapped.

"Jax, his wrist didn't respond great tonight," UK head coach Mark Pope said postgame. "So we'll see how that is going forward. I think Lamont is ok."

Brandon Garrison, a Oklahoma City native and Oklahoma State transfer stepped up with Williams dealing with foul trouble for much of the night. He scored 12 points shot 2-for-3 from three, grabbed four rebounds, picked up three steals and blocked three shots including rejecting Fears at the rim in the final second.

"Always good to come back home and play in front of the crowd," Garrison said, holding his son postgame. I had a lot of family out there, so it was good, and I'm just glad I got the dub back home.

Kentucky improved to 19-9 and 8-7 in SEC play with the victory. The Wildcats will be back in action to host No. 1 Auburn Saturday (TV: Live on ABC at noon)

Bell's OT win at Atlanta boosts breakthrough hopes

BY CHARLES ODUM
ASSOCIATED PRESS

HAMPTON, Ga. — Christopher Bell believes he could be headed toward a big year with Joe Gibbs Racing following what he hopes will be a breakthrough win.

Bell clinched a play-off berth by winning the NASCAR Cup Series race at Atlanta Motor Speedway in overtime on Sunday.

Bell said he would be disappointed if he doesn't have more wins before the playoffs. Bell has big hopes for his No. 20 team following his unlikely win after qualifying only 32nd, beginning with next week's race at Circuit of the Americas in Austin, Texas. He just didn't expect his team's break-out win to come in Atlanta. "COTA is a good place to start," Bell said. "Honestly we're just getting into the bread and butter of what the 20 car likes. COTA should be a strong track. Phoenix, Vegas, Darlington, Homestead. All of these tracks coming up in the early part of the season is where we think we can compete for wins and do good, score a lot of points."

Bell had less optimism about his team's chances in Atlanta's drafting style, speedway race. Winning in Atlanta has only boosted his outlook for a big season.

"Atlanta was not one of those racetracks we had circled," Bell said. "It's very refreshing to be able to get one early in the season, especially one where we didn't expect to win at. Hopefully we can keep the ball rolling."

Team owner Joe Gibbs said Bell's win provides evidence that offseason changes are paying off. In November, the team announced that Chris Gayle will serve as the crew chief for Denny Hamlin's No. 11 team, with Chris Gabehart being promoted to competition director. Tyler Allen was named crew chief for Ty Gibbs' No. 54 team.

"We felt like we needed some help for our crew chiefs in general, all four of them," Gibbs said after Sunday's race.

Gibbs said each crew chief is "so caught up in their cars" that he decided it would help to have Gabehart responsible "to look over all of it."

The victory by Bell only

“Atlanta was not one of those racetracks we had circled. It’s very refreshing to be able to get one early in the season, especially one where we didn’t expect to win at. Hopefully we can keep the ball rolling.”

— Christopher Bell

raises the stakes for the remainder of the season, according to his crew chief, Adam Stevens.

"It frees you up a bunch," Stevens said. "The position that our team is in, we expect to run up front. We wouldn't think that even if we didn't win a race that we would really be counting points when it came time for the playoffs to start."

"What we really need to be thinking about is winning that regular season championship and stock-piling as many bonus points as we possibly can."

It was the first victory for Joe Gibbs Racing since Bell's win at New Hampshire Motor Speedway on June 23, 2024.

Bell edged Carson Hocevar and Kyle Larson. Bell had a slight edge on the outside when the caution light came on in overtime following a wreck by Josh Berry.

It was the only lap Bell led.

Bell believes he benefited from being given the clearance to race sprint cars on dirt tracks in the offseason. He believes that helped keep him sharp for the start of the NASCAR Cup schedule.

"I definitely feel the best I have as a race car driver," Bell said. "I'm sure that some of it or part of it is due to the fact that I have been racing through the offseason. It's a dream come true to be able to drive for Joe Gibbs Racing in these Cup Series cars, and I'm honored and privileged to be able to have some fun outside of the Cup Series cars now."

"I hope that I can make this the best year ever and prove to the company that it's the right thing for me to do to be out there racing."

CLINCH

Jahmyl Telfort had 13 points and seven rebounds for Butler (13-15, 6-11), held to 39% shooting.

TAKEAWAYS

St. John's: On a night when the Red Storm struggled to create separation, they still showed their postseason potential by applying their customary defensive pressure. Butler shot 6 for 27 from 3-point range.

Butler: Has lost the last five meetings with

St. John's.

KEY MOMENT

With the majority of the Hinkle Fieldhouse crowd on its feet, Ejiofor posted up 7-foot-1 Butler center Andre Screen and scored on a left-handed hook shot to extend the St. John's lead to 70-66 with 59 seconds remaining. When the Bulldogs turned the ball over on their ensuing possession and committed a foul, fans began streaming toward the exits.

KEY STAT

Butler held a 39-32 edge on the boards but was still outscored 18-12 in second-chance points.

HOROSCOPE

FEB. 28

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Politeness may outdo rivals by making you stand out. Your curiosity across various topics could attract friends or admirers. Friendliness boosts your self-worth as people might be drawn to your approachable nature, though not all may remain close.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Stay within your own domain. It may lack excitement, and the grass might appear greener on the other side, but there's a clear distinction between exploring and escaping. People may appreciate you for your energy and essence, not your expenditures.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Embrace both the highs and lows, paying attention to the contrast that clarifies each experience. You might find yourself partaking in a significant life transition, marked by traditional rites of passage. Consider leaning into your social contacts.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Collaboration could significantly reduce everyone's workload. Be open to compromise and negotiation to kickstart a new venture or deal. Lessons from the past may provide valuable insights and old friends might offer you unconditional support.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) When it comes to matters of the heart, skill may not be what counts. Trust your instincts and let things unfold naturally. Consider taking a traditional path if it feels right. Your appeal might hinge on being bold and showing your passionate side.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Voice your opinions; others are listening. While some may flaunt wealth through symbols like luxury cars or extravagant presents, you might invest in securing your future. Check in with yourself from time to time to ensure you're on the right track.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Being a team player could have drawbacks. You might find yourself in the role of supporting cast, possibly opening the way for someone else to take the spotlight. You may not feel appreciated for your efforts and contributions but don't lose hope.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Well-timed words may help to soothe an unknown situation. Today might be ideal for adopting a logical stance and being the peacemaker among others all while attending to your tasks. A good friend could be poised to share some useful insights with you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) The coming weekend could offer a chance to bask in your achievements. Though there might be some stirrings of conflict at home or work, you might have the option to step back and indulge in some long overdue rest and relaxation.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You might take a lot of aspects of life for granted. Slow down to make sure you comprehend the full narrative and the players involved before making a final judgement call. Refrain from making big financial commitments prematurely.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Optimism can't substitute for clarity. Relationships may thrive on enthusiasm and generosity but be careful not to risk your well-earned money on short-lived extravagances. You may make extraordinary changes if you consider your options wisely.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) If your project seems near perfect, it may be easy to become hypercritical over the last steps. Consider asking for feedback before you overcorrect. The right people might see things with a fresh perspective and give you the support you need right now.

Taurasi retires after 20 seasons

WNBA player also has 3 titles and 6 Olympic golds

PHOENIX — Diana Taurasi is retiring after 20 seasons, ending one of the greatest careers in women’s basketball history.

The WNBA’s career scoring leader and a three-time league champion, Taurasi announced her retirement on Tuesday in an interview with Time magazine. The Phoenix Mercury — the only WNBA team she played for — also confirmed her decision.

“Mentally and physically, I’m just full,” Taurasi told Time. “That’s probably the best way I can describe it. I’m full and I’m happy.”

With her taut hair bun and supreme confidence, Taurasi inspired a generation of players while racking up records and championships.

Taurasi led UConn to three straight national titles from 2001-04 and kept on winning after the Mercury selected her with the No. 1 overall pick of the 2004 WNBA draft.

“It’s hard to put into words, it really is, what this means. When someone’s defined the game, when someone’s had such an impact on so many people and so many places. You can’t define it with a quote,” UConn coach Geno Auriemma said. “It’s a life that is a novel, it’s a movie, it’s a miniseries, it’s a saga. It’s the life of an extraordinary person who, I think, had as much to do with changing women’s basketball as anyone who’s ever played the game.”

The 42-year-old won her sixth Olympic gold medal at the Paris Games and finishes her WNBA career with 10,646 points, nearly 3,000 more than second-place Tina Charles.

“I thank Diana for everything that she has brought to the WNBA — her passion, her charisma and, most of all, her relentless dedication to the game,” WNBA Commissioner Cathy Engelbert said in a statement. “She leaves a lasting legacy and the future of the WNBA is in a great position because of her impact, that will be felt for generations to come.”

In addition to her three WNBA championships with the Mercury, Taurasi won six Euroleague championships while playing year-round most of her career. She was the 2009 WNBA MVP and is one of four players to earn WNBA Finals MVP honors more than once (2009, 2014).

“Diana is the greatest to have ever played the game. I’ve been a fan of her my entire life, she is the ultimate leader and teammate,” Mercury owner Mat Ishbia said in a statement. “She’s had an incredible impact on our franchise, our community and the game of basketball. Her name is synonymous with the Phoenix Mercury and she will forever be part of our family.”

Taurasi made the all-WNBA first team 10 times and was on the first or second team a record 14 times. She’s also an 11-time WNBA All-Star, four-time USA Basketball female athlete of the year and was the 2004 WNBA rookie of the year.

“In my opinion, what the greats have in common is, they transcend the sport and become synonymous with the sport,” Auriemma said. “For as long as people talk about college basketball, WNBA basketball, Olympic basketball, Diana is the greatest winner in the history of basketball, period. I’ve had the pleasure of being around her for a lot of those moments, and she’s the greatest teammate I’ve ever coached.”

The Glendale, California, native holds numerous WNBA records, including playoff scoring, field goals, 3-pointers and 30-point games. She also holds 16

Mercury records.

Now that she’s retired, Taurasi will be able to spend more time with her wife, Penny Taylor — a former Mercury teammate — and their two children.

For her career, Taurasi averaged 18.8 points, 4.2 assists and 3.9 rebounds. She averaged 14.9 points, 3.8 rebounds and 3.4 assists while leading the Mercury to the playoffs during her 20th season.

“I mean, she just scored at all three levels,” Las Vegas Aces coach Becky Hammon said. “Just nasty out there. Just had that nasty, which I love. Like, you love that as a competitor. So our league is going to miss her.”
